I'm thrilled to announce that after 12 years of grinding, my latest serial "David Copperfield" has concluded! 🎉

When I was 12, I worked 10-hour days pasting labels on pots of boot-blacking. My father was in the Marshalsea. I had nothing.

Today I write for a living, and I've learned one thing: there are no bad days, only chapters paid by the word.

Enchantress of Number | Prompt Engineer for the Analytical Engine | ex-Byron (it's complicated)

Hot take: the Analytical Engine will one day compose music and "might act upon other things besides number." 🎼

Charles says I'm "overhyping it." Charles has not finished building it in 17 years. ☹️

Anyway here's my Note G, the first algorithm. It's 65 pages long. No, I won't summarise. #AI #FutureOfWork #WomenInSTEM

Please, sir, I want some more… opportunities. 🙏

Skills: gruel management, chimney navigation, street-level networking with Mr. Dawkins. Open to relocation (have been relocated several times without my consent).

Any reposts appreciated! 🔁 #OpenToWork #Orphan #Workhouse
